A

CATALOGUE OF BOOKS

FOR

SUNDAY-SCHOOL AND OTHER LIBRARIES,

RECOMMENDED BY THE LADIES' COMMISSION ON SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOOKS.

GRADUATE THEOLOGICAL UNION
1890–1894.
LIBRARY
1962

BOSTON:
AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.
1894.

V
571
38
894
GTU
Storage

1894.

CATALOGUE

OF BOOKS FOR

SUNDAY-SCHOOL AND OTHER LIBRARIES,

RECOMMENDED BY

THE LADIES' COMMISSION ON SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS.

1890–1894.

BOSTON:
AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION,
25 Beacon Street.
1894.

BV
4571
C38
1894

THIS LIST combines with the books recommended this year those of the four previous years, with such alterations of prices and publishers as have become necessary.

The Commission has this year examined two hundred and seventeen volumes, and approved eighty-seven, the titles of which are printed in Italics.

The marks * and † are intended only for broad general divisions. Books which are suited to somewhat mature readers only are shown by notes.

Prices given, except when marked net, are the publishers' retail prices, on which a reduction is usually made to purchasers.

May, 1894.

As this list will not be reprinted, please keep this copy.

The previous Catalogue, 1885–1889, may be obtained at the rooms of the Sunday-School Society, 25 Beacon Street, Boston.

CATALOGUE.

The books of this year are in Italics.
The asterisk (*) marks books for readers over fourteen.
The dagger (†) marks books for the youngest children.

Abbot, Willis, J. Battle-fields of '61.

Abbot's Bridge, The. Frances Mary Peard. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 301. $1.50.

Historical fiction of the time of Edward III. The bridge is one belonging to the Abbey of St. Edmundsbury. Monks, outlaws, and minstrels all play their parts; and there is a lesson of faithfulness to trust.

Abbott, Charles C. Days out of doors.

Affair of Honor, An. Alice Weber. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Co. 1893. pp. 117. $1.25.

A girl of seven years tries to live up to the meaning of her name Alicia, — noble.

Against Heavy Odds. A tale of Norse heroism. Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen. Ill. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1890. pp. 177. $1.00.

The story of a manly Norwegian boy of sixteen and his successful struggles against the injustice and envy of an enemy, and the temptations first to discouragement and then to revenge.

* Aim of Life, The. Plain talks to young men and women. Philip Stafford Moxom. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1894. pp. 300. $1.00.

Alcott, Louisa May. Lulu's library. Vol. III.

Alcott, Louisa May: her life, letters, and journals. Edited by Ednah D. Cheney. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1889. pp. 386. $1.50.

Allen, Willis Boyd. Gulf and glacier.

All's Well that Ends Well. A story of Brittany. S. G. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1891. pp. 240. 80 cts.

The story of some English children in Brittany, giving the opportunity for a picture of the life there and for some historical allusions.

Along the Florida Reef. Charles Frederick Holder, LL.D. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 273. $1.50.

The actual adventures of some boys who lived for several months on the reef, and made collections of the fauna under the direction of a naturalist.

Among the Camps; or, young people's stories of the war. Thomas Nelson Page. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1891. pp. 163. $1.50.

Four stories, which appeared first in "Harper's Young People," about Southern children during our Civil War.

Another Flock of Girls. Nora Perry. Boston: Little Brown, & Co. 1890. pp. 194. $1.50.

Five stories of incidents in the lives of American schoolgirls. They were first printed in magazines, and are of varying value, but always with lessons of honesty and courtesy, and against prejudice and superficial judgment.

Archer with Columbus, An. Charles E. Brimblecom, Boston: Joseph Knight & Co. 1894. pp. 183. $1.25.

Historical fiction covering the period of Columbus's voyage of discovery and the preceding years of preparation.

Archibald, Mrs. George. A little brown seed.
The Summerville prize.

Archie of Athabasca. J. Macdonald Oxley. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1893. pp. 262. $1.25.

A story of a manly, courageous boy, the son of a factor of a fur-trading company early in this century, with hunting and trapping adventures.

Ardavan, Abd El. The lance of Kanana.

Around the World Stories. Olive Risley Seward. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1889. pp. 346. $1.25.

An account of a journey to China and India, and return through Europe, twenty years ago.

Atkinson, Rev. J. C. Walks and talks of two schoolboys.

Austin, Jane G. Betty Alden. Standish of Standish.

* Axel Eberson: the graduate of Upsala. A. Laurie. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Co. 1893. pp. 286. $1.50.

A story of Swedish life, with much information about sloyd, gymnastics, massage, etc.

Ballantyne, R. M. Jarwin and Cuffy.

Banks, Mattie B. Dame Dimple's Christmas celebration.

Barr, Amelia E. Michael and Theodora.

Battle and a Boy, A. A story for young people. Blanche Willis Howard. New York: Tait, Sons, & Co. 1893. pp. 285. $1.00.

A story of a Swiss boy, who sells his work for a year to a miserly farmer.

Battle-fields of '61. The initial volume of a "History of the Land Forces of the War of the Union." Willis J. Abbot. New York: Dodd, Mead, & Co. 1889. pp. 356. $2.00.

In describing John Brown, the facts of his life are correctly stated, but the nobleness and self-sacrifice which partially redeemed his cruelty, are ignored.

The account of the turbulent behavior of the Union troops on July 17, 1861 (p. 110), does not seem well authenticated, and there are several minor errors.

* Battle of New York, The. A story for all young people. William O. Stoddard. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 248. $1.50.

A story of the New York riots during the Civil War.

Baxter, Silvester. Cruise of a land yacht.

Beesley, Mrs. Stories from the history of Rome.

* Beric the Briton. A story of the Roman invasion. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1892. pp. 383. $1.50.

Historical romance of the Roman invasion of Britain in the time of Nero.

* Betty Alden. The first-born daughter of the Pilgrims. Jane G. Austin. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. pp. 384. $1.25.

Historical fiction of the Plymouth colony.

Betty Leicester. A story for girls. Sarah Orne Jewett. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1890. pp. 287. $1.25.

A summer spent in a small New England seaport by a young girl, who has lived also in Europe and outside of petty interests and jealousies.

Bewitched Lamp, The. Mrs. Molesworth. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1892. pp. 128. 50 cts.

A girl and boy commit an underhand action, and are shown by the consequences the error and folly of so doing.

Bible, Stories from the. Rev. A. J. Church, M. D. With illustrations after Julius Schnorr. London & New York: Macmillan & Co. 1890. pp. 283. $1.25.

The stories, chiefly in Bible language, of Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, Ruth, David, Ahab, Jeremiah, Esther, Maccabees.

Big Brother. Annie Fellows-Johnston. Ill. Cosy Corner Series. Boston: Joseph Knight Co. 1894. pp. 58. 50 cts.

A story of two orphan boys sent West for adoption. The interest centres in the devotion of the elder brother to the younger.

Birds, Our Common, and how to know them. John B. Grant. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1891. pp. 216. $1.50.

Brief and clear descriptions, with photographs from mounted specimens, most of which are very good, though the "crow" (p. 92) is quite unrecognizable.

Birds through an Opera-Glass. Florence A. Merriam. Riverside Library for Young People. New York & Boston: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 223. 75 cts.

Non-scientific descriptions of some of our native birds and their habits, with directions for studying them.

Blaisdell, Albert F. Stories of the Civil War.

Black Beauty: his grooms and companions. Anna Sewell. Boston: Am. Humane Education Soc. 1889. pp. 245. 12 cts. net.

The autobiography of a horse, with much information about proper treatment.

† Blind Man's Buff. Stories and rhymes for holiday times. Ill. Edited and arranged by Robert Ellice Mack. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. pp. 36. $1.00.

A few stories, with dainty pictures, for very young children.

Blue Dragon, The. Frances Mary Peard. London: National Soc. Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 296. $1.50.

A story of English life in the latter part of the fifteenth century, with description of a Miracle Play and also of the Plague. The "Blue Dragon" is an inn.

Blue Flag and Cloth of Gold. Anna Warner. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 359. $1.00.

A continuation of "Three Little Spades." This volume tells the experience of three little girls in raising bulbs. On Catalogue of 1880.

Bolton, Sarah K. Famous English statesmen.
" European artists.
" men of science.
" types of womanhood.
" voyagers and explorers.

Book of Famous Verse, A. Selected by Agnes Repplier. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1892. pp. 232. 75 cts.

Boyesen, Hjalmar H. Against heavy odds.

* Boy's Town, A. Described for "Harper's Young People." W. D. Howells. New York: Harper & Bros. 1890. pp. 247. $1.25.

A real boy's life in an Ohio town fifty years ago. The thoughts and feelings, as well as the pains and pleasures, are told with much sympathy from the man's standpoint. It ought to interest some young people, and make them sympathize with younger boys.

Bramston, M. Dangerous jewels.

Five victims. Lottie Levison.
A village genius. Wanted, a sphere.

Brewster, Marian. Under the water-oaks.

Brian's Home. Fannie E. Newberry. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. 1892. pp. 342. $1.50.

A story of home life in the South, with lessons of perseverance and self-control.

Brimblecom, Charles E. An archer with Columbus.

Brine, Mary D. Little new neighbor.
Little twin roses.

Brown, Jessie H. Runaway.

Buckley, Arabella B. Moral teachings of science.
Through magic glasses.

Butler, Maude M. Waiting and serving.

Burgoyne's Invasion of 1777. Decisive events in American history. Samuel Adams Drake. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1889. pp. 142. 50 cts.

Burnett, Emma L. A missionary twig.

Burnham, Anna P. Rock-a-by stories.

By England's Aid; or, the freeing of the Netherlands (1585–1604). G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 384. $1.50.

This book deals with the closing events of the War of Independence in Holland, taking a later period than that of "Pike and Dyke." Two English boys are the heroes; one who goes through thrilling experiences in Spain and marries and settles in Cadiz furnishes the fiction, while his brother in Holland gives the solid history.

Bynner, Edward L. The chase of the meteor.

By Pike and Dyke. A tale of the rise of the Dutch republic. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 384. $1.50.

Cadets of Flemming Hall, The. Anna Chapin Ray. New York: Thomas Y. Crowell & Co. 1892. pp. 300. $1.25.

Life in a military school.

Callwell, J. M. Dorothy Arden.
Town and country mice.

Campmates. Kirk Munroe. A story of the plains. New York: Harper & Bros. 1891. pp. 333. $1.25.

The "Campmates" are two boys, — one a scholar, contemptuous of athletics, the other strong, vigorous, and alert, but indifferent to study. On an engineering expedition across the continent, each learns the value of the other's attainments. The book is crowded with adventures and hair-breadth escapes, balanced by much information and lessons of thorough work and manly spirit.

Canoemates. A story of the Florida reef and everglades. Kirk Munroe. New York: Harper & Bros. 1893. pp. 324. $1.25.

The adventures of two boys who take their canoes through the Florida waters, and learn many interesting things.

Captain. From French of Mme. P. de Nanteuil, by Laura Ensor. New York: George Routledge & Sons. 1890. pp. 386. $1.50.

A story of the French navy, with a Newfoundland dog as one of the heroes. Roman Catholic, without doctrine.

Captain Christie's Granddaughter. Mrs. Lamb. New York: James Pott & Co. pp. 243. $1.25.

The story of a retired sea-captain and two children, — his orphan granddaughter and a boy to whom he gives a home, with lessons of loyalty and kindness.

Captain January. Laura E. Richards. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. 1891. pp. 64. 50 cts. Ill. $1.25.

The story of an old lighthouse keeper and a little girl whom he rescues from the sea and brings up in a most original and satisfactory way, and who repays his loving care with warm affection.

Captain of the Kittiewink, The. Herbert D. Ward. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1892. pp. 320. $1.25.

Yachting adventures in Massachusetts Bay.

Captains of Industry. Second Series. A book for young Americans. James Parton. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1891. pp. 393. $1.25.

Short, and in some cases very incomplete, sketches of persons noted for philanthropy and public spirit in the last two centuries.

Century World's Fair Book, The. For boys and girls, being the adventures of Harry and Philip with their tutor at the World's Columbian Exposition. Tudor Jenks. Ill. New York: Century Co. pp. 245. $1.50.

Chase of the Meteor, The, and other stories. Edwin Lasseter Bynner. Boston: Little, Brown, & Co. 1891. pp. 209. $1.25.

The "Meteor" is a locomotive, with which a plucky boy pursues and brings back a runaway train. These stories came out first in "St. Nicholas."

* Chats with Girls on Self-Culture. The Portia Series. Eliza Chester. New York: Dodd, Mead, & Co. 1891. pp. 213. $1.25.

Cheever, Harriet, A. Little Miss Boston.

Chester, Eliza. Chats with girls on self-culture.
Girls and women.

Cheney, Ednah D. Life of Louisa M. Alcott.

Children's Stories from Dickens. Retold by his granddaughter and others. Ill. New York: Raphael Tuck & Sons. pp. 104. $1.50.

Children's Stories in English Literature, from Taliesin to Shakespeare. Henrietta Christian Wright. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1889. pp. 345. $1.25.

Children's Voyage to the Cape, The. Sarah L. Find-later. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1892. pp. 122. 50 cts.

The experiences of a Scotch family on their voyage to Cape Town, and an account of their life after their arrival. On page 70, there is non-Unitarian doctrine.

Children's Year-Book, The. Selections for every day of the year. Chosen by Edith Emerson Forbes. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1893. pp. 351. $1.50.

Selections from the Bible and many other sources, for home use.

Chilhowee Boys. Sarah E. Morrison. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 434. $1.50.

An essentially true story of several families who migrated from North Carolina to Tennessee in 1811, with an account of the first year of their pioneer life.

China Cup, A, and other stories for children. Children's Library. Felix Volkhovsky. New York: Cassell Publishing Co. 1892. pp. 176. 75 cts.

Russian fairy-tales.

† Christmas Stories and Poems for the little ones. C. Emma Cheney, Sidney Dare, and others. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Co. 1889. pp. 80. $1.00.

Not specially good, but adapted to the youngest, as it has many pictures.

Chuck Purdy. The story of a New York boy. William O. Stoddard. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 318. $1.25.

"Chuck," originally Jack, Purdy is the son of a retail grocer in New York. The story shows how keen powers of observation, an excellent memory, and capacity for sympathy with animals and with human beings will make a useful and intelligent man out of a seemingly rather dull boy. The book deals with commonplace incidents in a wholesome and interesting way.

Church, Rev. Alfred J. The story of the Bible.
" " Iliad.
" " Odyssey.
To the lions.
A young Macedonian in the army of Alexander the Great.

City Boys in the Woods; or, a trapping venture in Maine. Henry P. Wells. Ill. New York: Harper & Bros. 1890. pp. 277. $2.50.

Much natural history and practical information about a woodsman's life.

Clark, Imogen. Robert of the sunny heart.

Clark, Kate McCosh. Southern cross fairy tales.

Coffin, Charles Carleton. Abraham Lincoln.
Redeeming the republic.

Coleridge, C. R. Max, Fritz, and Hob.

Colomb, Madame C. Hermine's triumphs.

Comfort, Elizabeth M. The little heroine of Poverty Flat.

Comrades. Fannie E. Newberry. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. pp. 308. $1.25.

The story of the friendship of two boys of widely different social positions.

Condemned as a Nihilist. A story of escape from Siberia. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1892. pp. 332. $1.50.

An English boy is condemned as a Nihilist, and sent to Siberia, whence he escapes after many adventures.

* Conduct as a Fine Art: "Laws of daily conduct," N. P. Gilman; "Character building," E. P. Jackson. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1892. pp. 230. $1.50.

Two prize essays, "designed to aid in instructing children and youth in the purest principles of morality."

Coolidge, Susan. In the high valley. Just sixteen.

Cooper, James Fenimore. Stories of the sea.
" " woods.

Coral Ship, The. A story of the Florida reef. Kirk Munroe. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1893. pp. 261. $1.25.

A story of adventure, with lessons of courage.

Cornish, Katharine D. A far-away cousin.

Coryell, John R. Diccon the bold. Diego Pinzon.

Country School in New England, The. Clifton Johnson. Ill. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1893. pp. 102. $2.50.

An account of the schools from early times. Modern school life is illustrated by the pictures.

"Courage." Ruth Ogden. Ill. New York: F. A. Stokes & Co. 1891. pp. 112. $1.00.

"Courage" was a little girl of twelve, who lived on a "lighter" in New York harbor, and afterward on a drawbridge, and who tried to be always true to her name.

Cox, Maria M. Jack Brereton's three months' service.

Crompton, Frances E. Master Bartlemy.

Cruise of a Land Yacht. Silvester Baxter. Ill. Boston: Little, Brown, & Co. 1891. pp. 263. Boards; $1.25. Cloth; $1.75.

The story of a pleasure-trip in a private car from Boston to Mexico, with much information.

Curtis, Alice E. The silver cross.

Cuthell, E. E. Only a guardroom dog.
The robber baron of Bedford Castle.

† Daisy Days. Bright stories and pictures for little folks, by favorite authors. Boston: De Wolfe, Fiske, & Co. 50 cts.

Dame Dimple's Christmas Celebration. Mattie B. Banks. New York & London: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1890. pp. 85. 75 cts.

A story of a little girl, who, through her love for the old minister, conceives the idea of a doll's party to cheer up his Christmas, and by carrying it out, unites the somewhat disaffected parish in good-will and charity.

Dangerous Jewels. M. Bramston. London: Nat. Soc. Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 240. $1.25.

Time of the French Revolution. Three Breton children, with hidden jewels, are kidnapped by gypsies on their way to an English grandmother. They are not ill-treated, but have many adventures, and opportunity for patience and forgiveness.

D'Anvers, N. Pixie's adventures.

Daryll, A. J. Little merry-makers.

Davis, Rebecca Harding. Kent Hampden.

Days of Chivalry, In the. A tale of the times of the Black Prince. E. Everett-Greene. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1893. pp. 562. $1.75.

* Days out of Doors. Charles C. Abbott. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1889. pp. 323. $1.50.

Magazine papers, descriptive of sights and sounds to be found in the country in the different months.

Debenham, Mary H.

A little candle.	For king and home.
Fairmeadows farm.	Moor and Moss.
Mistress Phil.	My goddaughter.

Dewdrops and Diamonds. Emma Marshall. The Chines Series. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 344. $1.25.

A reprint of a story of two little English girls, one rich, the other poor, with lessons of contentment and patience.

Diccon the Bold. A story of the days of Columbus. John Russell Coryell. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1893. pp. 279. $1.25.

Diccon was an English boy shipwrecked in Spain and rescued by some Jews, whom he afterward helped when they were persecuted by the Inquisition. He knew Sebastian Cabot, and sailed with Columbus on his first voyage.

Dickie Winton; or, between gate and front door. S. G. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 144. 60 cts.

Story of a boy of seven, who runs away from school to see his mother. Satan, p. 43.

Diego Pinzon, and the fearful voyage he took into the unknown ocean, A.D. 1492. John Russell Coryell. New York: Harper & Bros. 1893. pp. 259. $1.25.

The story of a boy's adventures with Columbus on his voyage of discovery.

* Dix, Life of Dorothea Lynde. Francis Tiffany. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1890. pp. 388. $1.50.

Record of work for the insane and on the Sanitary Commission.

Dorothy Arden. A story of England and France two hundred years ago. J. M. Callwell. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 349. $1.50.

A young Huguenot girl, with her little brother, escapes from French persecution to English relatives, and becomes involved in Monmouth's Rebellion.

Douglas, Amanda, M. Larry.

Drake, Samuel Adams. Burgoyne's invasion of 1777. The taking of Louisburg.

Dr. Lincoln's Children. Kate W. Hamilton. Boston & Chicago. Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. 1892. pp. 207. $1.00.

The story of children of an invalid mother, who learn to be helpful to each other and to their parents.

Dunboyne, Lady. Uncle Guy. A young squire.

Duty's Bondman. Helen Shipton. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. 1890. pp. 256. $1.00.

A story with an excellent moral, and giving a noble example of a working man who quietly does his duty, at great cost to himself, without making any display of heroism before the world. Good for special libraries.

Dyson, Mrs. W. H. Stories of the trees.

Early Explorers, Half-Hours with the. Thomas Frost. New edition. New York: Cassell & Co. pp. 224. $1.75.

On Catalogue of 1878.

Emery, Mabel S. When we were little.

Enchanted Garden, An. Fairy stories. Children's Library. Mrs. Molesworth. New York: Cassell Publishing Co. 1892. pp. 221. 75 cts.

English History for Young Americans, Stories from. Ill. New York: Harper & Brothers. 1892. pp. 774. $2.00.

Englishman's Haven. W. J. Gordon. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 288. $1.50.

Historical fiction. The scene is laid in Nova Scotia at the time of the siege of Louisburg.

Ethics for Young People. C. C. Everett. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1891. pp. 185. 50 cts. net.

Everett, C. C. Ethics for young people.

Everett-Greene, Evelyn. In the days of chivalry.
In the Wars of the Roses.

Ewin Lloyd; or, how we got on. Ellinor J. Kelly. New York: James Pott & Co. pp. 256. $1.25.

A story of an English tradesman's family, reduced from comfort to poverty, and the endeavors of the children to find honest work.

Facing Death; or, the hero of the Vaughan pit. A tale of the coal mines. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 304. $1.50.

Fairmeadows Farm. Mary H. Debenham. London: National Soc. Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1889. pp. 147. 90 cts.

A story of English country life in the time of James II. and the Monmouth Rebellion, with lessons of courage and gratitude.

Fairy Cobbler's Gold. Ethel Penrose. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 128. 50 cts.

A family of healthy, thoughtless children make a timid little cousin miserable by stories of ogres and fairies till he proves himself brave and unselfish, and they are ashamed and repentant.

Fairy Lure. German and Swedish fairy tales, collected and adapted by Carrie Norris Horwitz. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 345. $1.50.

Family Coach, The. Who filled it, who drove it, and who seized the reins. M. & C. Lee. London: Nat.

Soc. Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 225. $1.25.

The adventures of four English children and two nurses in their journey from England to the South of France, and their misfortunes, caused by the self-conceit of the eldest girl.

Family Manners. Elizabeth Glover. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 37. 35 cts.

A talk between a girl and an elder friend about courtesy and kindliness at home.

Family Troubles. Mrs. Molesworth. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 32. 50 cts.

A fairy story of Father Time and his children, the months, and their various duties. There is also a short story concerning the mischief done by Mr. Nobody.

Famous English Statesmen of Queen Victoria's Reign. Sarah K. Bolton. Ill. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 460. $1.50.

Brief biographies of Sir Robert Peel, Lord Palmerston, Lord Shaftesbury, John Bright, William Foster, Lord Beaconsfield, Henry Fawcett, Gladstone.

Famous European Artists. Sarah K. Bolton. New York. T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 423. $1.50.

Short biographies with side-lights on the history and manners of the times, and with references for fuller reading.

Famous Men of Science. Sarah K. Bolton. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. 1889. pp. 426. $1.50.

Short biographies, full of anecdotes and moral truisms.

Famous Types of Womanhood. Sarah Knowles Bolton. New York & Boston: T. Y. Crowell & Co. 1892. pp. 350. $1.50.

Biographical sketches of Queen Louisa of Prussia, Madame Récamier, Susanna Wesley, Harriet Martineau, Jenny Lind, Dorothea L. Dix, Ann, Sarah, and Emily Judson, Amelia Blandford Edwards.

Famous Voyagers and Explorers. Sarah K. Bolton. New York & Boston: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 509. $1.50.

Sketches of noted travellers, from Marco Polo to Lieutenant Peary.

Far-Away Cousin, A. Katharine D. Cornish. London: Griffith, Farran, Okeden, & Welsh. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. pp. 149. 75 cts.

A simple English story of the daily life of a family of children at their grandmother's, with slight adventures. The lesson is "do not dream," and the religious teaching is on pages 90–129.

Faraday, Michael. Man of science. Walter Jerrold. New York & Chicago: Fleming H. Revell Co. pp. 160. 75 cts.

Feats on the Fiord. Harriet Martineau. Ill. Boston: Joseph Knight Co. 1894. pp. 204. $1.50.

A republication of a book included in a former list. A story of Norway.

Fellows-Johnston, Annie. Big brother.

Fenn, George Manville.

Gil the gunner. Mother Carey's chickens.
Mass' George. Nat the naturalist.

Fighting the Saracens; or, the boy knight. G. A. Henty. Boston: Charles E. Brown & Co. pp. 324. $1.50.

A story of the time of Richard Cœur de Lion. Type small and worn. On the Catalogue of 1883 as "Boy Knight."

Findlater, Sarah L. The children's voyage to the Cape.

Finn and his Companions. Children's Library. Standish O'Grady. New York: Cassell Publishing Co. 1892. pp. 182. 75 cts.

Legends of the time of Ossian.

Fisherman's Daughter, A. Jennie Harrison. New York: Am. Tract Soc. pp. 248. $1.00.

The story of a "King's Daughter," who, after three years of study in a city, returns to her home in a fishing village, and makes the whole place better by doing the duty next her hand.

Fiske, John. The War of Independence.
Washington and his country.

Five Victims. A schoolroom story. M. Bramston. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 216. 75 cts.

A story of English life with many good lessons for girls.

Florence: a story of beginnings. Alice Weber. New York: George Routledge & Sons. 1890. pp. 320. $1.00.

An English story, with lessons of honor and self-forgetfulness.

Flying Hill Farm. Sophie Swett. New York: Harper & Bros. 1892. pp. 263. $1.25.

A story of New England village life, with good moral lessons.

Forbes, Edith Emerson. The children's year-book.

†Forest Home Series. Willis Boyd Allen. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. 1889. $2.00.

Prince's Pine. A Leaf of Laurel.
Creeping Jenny. Christmas Evergreens.
Fir Boughs.

Five small books, continuing the "Mountaineer Series." Stories within a story of life among the mountains in winter and summer.

For Grown-up Children. L. B. Walford. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 147. $1.00.

Stories of little children written for their elders.

For King and Home. Mary H. Debenham. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 192. $1.00.

An English girl's experience in La Vendée during the French Revolution of 1793, showing the loyalty and courage of the people.

For Name and Fame; or, through Afghan passes. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 352. $1.50.

Fortunes of Toby Trafford, The. J. T. Trowbridge. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1893. pp. 315. $1.25.

The story of a boy who earns a living in an honest way, and under difficulties.

Foster, A. J. The robber baron of Bedford Castle.

Four and Five. A story of a Lend-a-Hand club. Edward E. Hale. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 194. $1.00.

A story of boys and their camping out.

† Four Feet by Two. Animal talks and tales, by Mr. Barn Owl, Mrs. Mouser, A. Colt, G. Gee, Farmyard Quacklings, and other animal writers. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. pp. 72. $1.50.

Short stories about animals, with some moral lessons and many colored illustrations.

Four on an Island. A book for the little folks. L. T. Meade. New York: Cassell Pub. Co. pp. 262. $1.50.

A story of some children who drifted out to sea from the Brazilian coast.

Frazer, Douglas. Log of the Maryland.

From Colony to Commonwealth. Stories of the Revolutionary days in Boston. Nina Moore Tiffany. Ill. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1891. pp. 178. 60 cts. net.

An account for young children of the history of Boston from the Stamp Act to the Revolution, with good maps and illustrations.

Frost, Thomas. Half-hours with the early explorers.

Fru Dagmar's Son. A survivor of the Danmark. Julia McNair Wright. New York: Nat. Temp. Society. 1891. pp. 348. $1.25.

The story of a Danish orphan left in the hands of a repulsive and miserly uncle, from whom he escapes to America with many adventures. The boy is single-minded and faithful, and the picture of Danish life very quaint.

† Full of Fun. Humorous rhymes and pictures. Robert Ellice Mack. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. pp. 23. 75 cts.

Simple rhymes, with attractive-colored pictures, for very young children.

Gassiot, N. Stories from Waverley.

Geordie Stuart. A story of Waterloo. M. B. Manwell. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1892. pp. 123. 50 cts.

A Scotch boy makes a friend of a French boy prisoner, helps him to escape, and afterward at Waterloo is saved himself at the cost of his friend's life.

Giberne, Agnes. The ocean of air.

* Gilead Guards, The. A story of war times in a New England town. Mrs. O. W. Scott. New York: Hunt & Eaton. 1891. pp. 300. $1.00.

A story of our Civil War and the way it affected the inhabitants, young and old, of a small New England town. Chapter XXI. tells of an Evangelical "conversion."

Gilman, Bradley. The musical journey of Dorothy and Delia.

Gilman, N. P. Conduct as a fine art.

Gil the Gunner; or, the youngest officer in the East. George Manville Fenn. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. 1892. pp. 542. $2.00.

A story of the Sepoy mutiny in India.

Girls and I, The. Mrs. Molesworth. London: Macmillan & Co. 1892. pp. 192. $1.25.

Incidents in the lives of a little boy and his four sisters, who lived in London and its vicinity.

Girls and Women. E. Chester. Riverside Library for Young People. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1890. pp. 228. 75 cts.

Practical, sensible advice to girls on Aim in Life, Health, Self-Support, Culture, Home, etc., with many illustrative anecdotes.

Gladden, Washington. Santa Claus on a lark.

Glover, Elizabeth. Family manners.
Talks about a fine art.

Gordon, W. J. Englishman's Haven.

Goss, Warren Lee. Jed.

Grant, John B. Our common birds.

Great-Uncle Hoot-Toot. Mrs. Molesworth. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 96. $1.00.

A grumbling, dissatisfied boy cured of his selfishness by a wise and positive uncle.

Greek Heroes; or, Greek fairy stories for my children. Charles Kingsley. Edited by John Tetlow. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1891. pp. 162. 50 and 60 cts. net.

A new edition of a book included in a former list.

Green Casket, and other stories. Mrs. Molesworth. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1890. pp. 125. 50 cts.

Three simple English stories teaching truthfulness and bravery.

Griffis, William E. Japan.

Guernsey, Lucy E. The hidden treasure.

Gulf and Glacier; or, the Percivals in Alaska. Willis Boyd Allen. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 243. $1.00.

Gulliver's Travels. I. Voyage to Lilliput. II. Voyage to Brobdingnag. Jonathan Swift. Classics for Children. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1892. pp. 159. 30 cts. net.

Adapted to the use of children.

Hale, Rev. E. E. Four and Five.

Half Hours of Scientific Amusement (Scientific Recreation Series). From French of Gaston Tissandier, by Henry Frith. New York: Ward, Lock, & Co. 1890. pp. 141. 50 cts.

Directions for easily performed, instructive, and amusing experiments in physics and chemistry.

Hamilton, Kate W. Nellie's Red Book Series.
Roy's opportunity.

Harrison, Jennie. A fisherman's daughter.

Heather and Harebell. A story for children. Emma

Marshall. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 275. $1.25.

A reprint of an account of a year in the lives of two English boys, in England and Mentone, with lessons of bravery, honor, and forgiveness.

Helen Glenn; or, my mother's enemy. Lucy C. Lillie. Philadelphia: Porter & Coates. pp. 320. $1.25.

Reprint of a book included in a former list, and entitled "My Mother's Enemy."

Henty, G. A.

By England's aid.
Condemned as a Nihilist.
Fighting the Saracens.
A Jacobite exile.
Beric the Briton.
By pike and dyke.
Facing death.
For name and fame.
Saint George for England.
Saint Bartholomew's Eve.
Through the Sikh War.
With Clive in India.
With Wolfe in Canada.

Hereward the Wake, "Last of the English." Charles Kingsley. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1893. pp. 256. 50 cts.

An abridged edition, with full notes.

Hermine's Triumphs. Madame C. Colomb. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 326. $1.50.

Story of an orphaned French girl, whose sweetness triumphs over the jealousies and prejudices of some unkind relatives.

Heroes and Martyrs of Invention. George M. Towle. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1890. pp. 202. $1.00.

Short and vigorous sketches of the lives of many inventors, teaching observation, patience, and perseverance.

Hidden Treasure, The. A tale of troublous times. Lucy Ellen Guernsey. New York: T. Whittaker. 1890. pp. 339. $1.50.

The treasure is a copy of Wycliffe's Bible, and the story is of religious persecution in England early in the sixteenth century, with religious doctrines of the time, as on pages 87 and 157.

Higginson, Mary Thacher. Room for one more.

Hildegarde's Holiday. A sequel to "Queen Hildegarde." Laura E. Richards. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 370. $1.25.

Two girls pass a summer in the country, and not only enjoy everything, but contrive to make every one near them the happier for their presence.

Hildegarde's Home. Laura E. Richards. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 318. $1.25.

Continuation of "Hildegarde's Holiday."

Hill, Frederick Stanhope. Twenty years at sea.

Holder, Charles F. Along the Florida reef.

Holiday Tasks. Mrs. O'Reilly. London & New York: George Routledge & Sons. 1890. pp. 253. 90 cts.

An English story of an imaginative and conscientious child of ten and her playmates. Examples of the folly of conceit and ill-temper, and the value of perfect truthfulness.

Home of Fiesole, The, and the times of Savonarola. By the author of "Children of Suligsberg." New York: T. Whittaker. New edition. pp. 350. $1.25.

A story of Italian life, introducing Savonarola and other historical persons. On Catalogue of 1883.

Horwitz, Carrie Norris. Fairy lure.

† House to Let. Mrs. Molesworth. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 96. $1.00.

A simple little story of kindness even to a family of mice.

Howard, Blanche Willis. A battle and a boy.
No heroes.

Howells, W. D. A boy's town.
Christmas every day. [Minority List.]
My year in a log cabin.

Humphreys, Frances A. Little pilgrims in Plymouth.

Hunter, Eleanor A.
Talks to boys.
Talks to girls.
Some friends of mine.
Wiscasset stories.

Hurstleigh Dene. Mrs. O'Reilly. London & New York: Longmans, Green, & Co. 1890. pp. 324. $1.50.

The story of a family of motherless boys and girls, honorable, imaginative, and lovable. The plot is poor, and the local coloring very English, but the lessons excellent.

Iliad, The Story of the. Rev. A. J. Church, M. A. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1891. pp. 314. 50 cts. Colored illustrations. $1.00.

A prose paraphrase of the Iliad.

Ilka, the Captive Maiden, and other stories. S. G. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1892. pp. 128. 50 cts.

Four romantic sketches of heroism and patriotism, founded on legends of Hungary in the Middle Ages, 1200–1442.

Ingleside. Barbara Yechton. New York & Boston: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 219. $1.25.

The story of the softening influence of a little girl upon her stern great-aunt, with whom she goes to live.

* In the High Valley. Being the fifth and last volume of the "Katy Did" series, by Susan Coolidge. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 288. $1.25.

The scene is laid first in Devonshire, England, and later in a Colorado valley; and all the remaining members of Katy's family are disposed of in marriage.

† In the Orchard. Ill. Boston: De Wolfe, Fiske, & Co. 60 cts.

Short stories, taken from "Our Little Ones."

Jack and his Ostrich. An African story. Eleanor Stredder. London & New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 192. 60 cts.

A brave, honest boy of ten, whose help and defender is a pet ostrich.

Jack Brereton's Three Months' Service. Maria McIntosh Cox. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1872. pp. 274. $1.25.

Story of the good work of a boy at home during the service of his father in the army at the time of the Civil War.

Jackson, Alice F. Julie.

Jacobite Exile, A. Being the adventures of a young Englishman in the service of Charles XII. of Sweden. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1893. pp. 353. $1.50.

Jamieson, Mrs. C. V. Lady Jane.

* Japan; in history, folk-lore, and art. William Elliot Griffis. Riverside Library for Young People. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1892. pp. 227. 75 cts.

Japanese Boy, A. By himself. New York: Henry Holt & Co. 1890. pp. 128. $1.00.

A series of articles describing the home life and school experiences of a Japanese boy.

Jarwin and Cuffy. R. M. Ballantyne. New edition. New York: F. Warne & Co. pp. 250. 60 cts.

The story of a man and a dog cast away on an island in the South Pacific, their escape from pirates, and capture by savages, who became converts to Christianity. On Catalogue of 1878.

Jean Noël. Christmas in France. Florence and Edith Scannell. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. 1892. pp. 32. 50 cts.

A French Christmas story, with lessons of kindness to the poor.

Jed. A boy's adventures in the army, 1861–1865. Warren Lee Goss. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. 1889. pp. 404. $1.50.

Founded on personal experience.

Jenks, Tudor. The Century World's Fair Book.

Jennie Wren's Boarding House. A story of newsboy life in New York. James Otis. Ill. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 178. $1.25.

The interest of the story centres in the boys' unselfishness and loyalty to each other.

Jerrold, Walter. Michael Faraday.

Jewett, Sarah Orne. Betty Leicester.

Jock o' Dreams. Julie M. Lippman. Ill. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 211. $1.25.

Eight fanciful stories told as dreams, each with a moral point.

Johnson, Clifton. The country schools of New England.

Johnson, Samuel. Rasselas.

Jolly Good Times at Hackmatack. Mary P. Wells Smith. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 347. $1.25.

A story of the life of country boys and girls in Western Massachusetts in the early part of this century, — the time of stage-coaches and singing-schools and spelling-matches.

Jones, C. A. Little Sir Nicholas.

Julie. Alice F. Jackson. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. 1892. pp. 255. $1.00.

Story of English home life. A sensitive, delicate child is accidentally lost to her family for a year, and by this accident her brothers and sisters learn to appreciate her.

Just Sixteen. Susan Coolidge. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1889. pp. 304. $1.25.

Sixteen stories of girls of different ages, and ranging in subject from a girl of twenty who succeeds in earning her own living, to a mermaid legend of Provence.

Keary, Annie. Sidney Grey.

Kelly, Ellinor J. Ewin Lloyd.

Kenney, Minnie E. Mother's bedtime tales.

Kent Hampden. Rebecca Harding Davis. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1892. pp. 152. $1.00.

A manly Southern boy, through difficulty and danger, clears his father from the charge of dishonesty.

† Kindergarten Stories and Morning Talks. A manual for teachers. Sara E. Wiltse. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1890. pp. 212. 75 cts. net.

Kingsley, Charles. Hereward the Wake.
Greek heroes. Water babies.

King's Messenger, The. Emily Huntington Miller. New York: Hunt & Eaton. 1891. pp. 276. 90 cts.

A story of young people who try to carry the message of love and helpfulness to those around them. On pp. 222, 223, is an account of a revival.

* Kinsfolk and Others. By the author of "Atelier du Lys." New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 271. $1.50.

A book for the older girls, with emphasis on the danger of prejudice and the beauty of helpfulness and cordial sympathy.

Kramer, John W. The right road.

Lady Jane. Mrs. C. V. Jamieson. New York: Century Co. 1891. pp. 233. $1.50.

A little girl falls into the hands of an unscrupulous and selfish woman, makes friends by her loveliness and sweetness of disposition, and is finally restored to her wealthy relatives. The scene is laid in New Orleans.

Lamb, Charles and Mary. Tales from Shakespeare.

Lamb, Mrs. Captain Christie's granddaughter.

Lance of Kanana, The. A story of Arabia. Abd El Ardavan. D. Lothrop Co. 1892. pp. 172. $1.00.

A fanciful, legendary story of a Bedouin boy, son of a sheik, who performed deeds of valor, saved his country from the enemy, and proved himself a true hero.

Lang, Andrew. The true story-book.

Larcom, Lucy. A New England girlhood.

Larry. Amanda M. Douglas. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1893. pp. 242. $1.00.

The story of a friendless boy who is sent West, and is there adopted by an excellent woman and brought up on her farm.

Laurie, A. Axel Eberson.

LeClerc, M. C. Mistress Beatrice Cope.

Lee, M. and C. The family coach.

Leonowens, Mrs. A. H. Our Asiatic cousins.

Leslie, Mrs. Madeline. Minnie and her pets.

Lillie, Lucy C. Helen Glenn.

Lincoln, Abraham. Charles Carleton Coffin. Ill. New York: Harper & Bros. 1893. pp. 535. $3.00.

Lippman, Julie M. Jock o' Dreams.

Litchfield, Mary E. The nine worlds.

Little Brothers of the Air. Olive Thorne Miller. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1892. pp. 267. $1.25.

Papers about birds, some of which are reprinted from the "Atlantic" and other magazines.

Little Brown Seed, A; or, an improved opportunity. Mrs. George Archibald. New York: Hunt & Eaton. 1891. pp. 197. 80 cts.

A story of wise help to a neglected child and her intemperate father, written from an Evangelical point of view, but not doctrinal.

Little Candle, A. Mary H. Debenham. London: Nat. Soc. Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 268. $1.50.

The story of a Scotch (Church of England) family driven from their home by Covenanters in 1688, and living for a time in France. The value of the book is in its fairness to both sides, its religious spirit, and the beauty of the characters.

Little Heroine of Poverty Flat, The. A true story Elizabeth Maxwell Comfort. Ill. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 86. 75 cts.

The story of a brave little girl who walked over a mountain in a terrible snow-storm to send help to some miners buried by a snow-slide.

Little Jarvis. Molly Elliott Seawell. Prize story of "Youth's Companion." Ill. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1890. pp. 64. $1.00.

The story of a boy midshipman in the United States Navy in 1800, and his loss of life through obedience to orders.

Little Lame Prince, The. A parable for old and young. Miss Mulock. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. 1893. pp. 198. $1.00.

Reprint of a book included in a former list.

† Little Merry-Makers. A. J. Daryll. Ill. London & New York: F. Warne & Co. pp. 46. 75 cts. net.

Pretty verses and colored pictures for very young children.

Little Miss Boston. A Christmas story. Mrs. Harriet A. Cheever. Boston: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. pp. 301. $1.25.

A little orphan runs away from her wretched home, and after living for several days in churches, strays into a fine house and is adopted by the owners. Utterly improbable, but interesting, and with the lesson of sympathy for the poor.

Little Musician, The. Christmas in Italy. Florence and Edith Scannell. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. 1892. pp. 32. 50 cts.

Romantic story of a boy of twelve, giving glimpses of Italian peasant life. Prettily illustrated.

Little New Neighbor. Mary D. Brine. Ill. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1891. pp. 84. $1.00.

The story of a little girl, and how she made friends in a new neighborhood, with some unnecessary emphasis on her beauty and pretty dress.

Little Pilgrims at Plymouth. Frances A. Humphreys. Boston: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. pp. 331. $1.25.

Two children from Colorado go to Plymouth, New England, and know enough of its early history to enjoy the historical associations of the place. With much history, there are also lessons in manners and morals.

Little Red Shop, The. Margaret Sidney. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1889. pp. 225. $1.00.

The success of three children who start a little shop in an old tool-house in a village to earn money for their mother and baby sister.

Little Sir Nicholas. C. A. Jones. New York: F. Warne & Co. 1890. pp. 250. $1.50.

A little boy, saved from a shipwreck on the coast of France, proves to be the heir to an English estate, and is made very unhappy by being misunderstood there. He is obedient, truthful, and generous, and all comes out well in the end.

Little Smoke. A tale of the Sioux. William O. Stoddard. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1891. pp. 295. $1.50.

"Little Smoke" is a clever Indian boy of about fourteen, who makes friends with a captive white boy of the same age. The latter learns much of Indian life, sees the last attack on General Custer's forces, and finally escapes to his home.

† Little Sunshine. Stories for the little folks, by favorite authors. Ill. Boston: De Wolfe, Fiske, & Co. 50 cts.

Little Twin Roses, The. A story for little girls and boys. Mary D. Brine. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1892. pp. 64. $1.00.

Two little children earn money to buy a birthday present for their mother.

Log of the Maryland; or, adventures at sea. Douglas Frazer. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1891. pp. 386. $1.50.

The account of an actual voyage between Boston and China, with encounter with Chinese pirates.

Lonely Hill and Its Possibilities. A story for out-of-the-way places. M. L. Thornton-Wildes. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. pp. 374. $1.50.

A story of country children, very Evangelical in tone, but full of suggestions of helpfulness to one's neighbor.

Loss of John Humble, The. What led to it, and what came of it. G. Norway. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 351. $1.50.

A Swedish boy, "pressed" into the English service, is shipwrecked afterward on the coast of Lapland. Rather frightful with suffering, but instructive as well as interesting.

Lost Hero, A. Elizabeth S. Phelps Ward and Herbert D. Ward. Ill. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 74. $1.50.

The "hero" is an old negro, who lost his life in saving a railroad train in South Carolina during an earthquake. Written for the "Youth's Companion."

Lost in the Wilds of Canada. Eleanor Stredder. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. pp. 227. 80 cts.

Lost Piece of Silver, A. F. M. S. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. London: Wells, Gardner, Darton, & Co. pp. 205. $1.25.

The story of a poor girl in a London workhouse and afterward at service. She has the failings of her condition, but is won to truth and goodness by the persistent kindness of her mistress. Good for special libraries.

Lottie Levison. A story of South London for young women and older girls. M. Bramston. Nat. Soc. Dep. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 164. 90 cts.

The story of a girl in one of the poorest parts of London, who is inspired to make herself respectable, and afterward learns how to help the people about her.

Loughead, Flora H. The abandoned claim. [Minority List.]

Louisburg, Taking of. Decisive events in American history. Samuel Adams Drake. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1891. pp. 131. 50 cts.

Lowndes, Cecilia Selby. Mr. Orde's grandchildren. Ray's discovery.

Loyal Little Red-Coat, A. A story of child-life in New York 100 years ago. Ill. Ruth Ogden. New York: F. A. Stokes & Co. 1890. pp. 217. $2.00.

The Little Red-Coat is a little girl whose parents were Tories, and the book emphasizes the feeling toward the Tories after independence was won.

†Lucky Ducks, The, and other tales. Ill. Mrs. Molesworth. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 96. $1.00.

A collection of little stories, many of them teaching good lessons in an easy way, and with pretty colored pictures.

Lulu's Library, Vol. III. Louisa M. Alcott. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1889. pp. 258. $1.00.

Short stories, written originally for Miss Alcott's little niece.

Lummis, Charles F. A New Mexico David.

Luther, Boyhood of Martin. A tale of the early life of the great reformer. Henry Mayhew. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 282. $1.25.

A vivid picture of German family life in the sixteenth century, with details of harshness and cruelty which make it fit only for the older boys and girls. On Catalogue of 1869, but out of print for many years.

Lyall, Edna. Their happiest Christmas.

Mabinogion, Tales from the. Children's Library. Edited by Meta E. Williams. New York: Cassell Pub. Co. 1892. pp. 189. 75 cts.

Stories of the deeds of King Arthur's Knights.

Machar, Agnes M. Marjorie's Canadian winter.
Stories of New France.

Mack, Robert Ellice. Full of fun.
Blind man's buff.

Maclehose, Sophia M. Tales from Spenser.

Macquoid, Mrs. Puff.

Mademoiselle. Frances Mary Peard. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1891. pp. 257. $1.25.

A French girl's story of her life, first in the country, then in Paris, during the Franco-Prussian War.

Madge Hilton, The Story of; or, left to themselves. Agnes C. Maitland. London & New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 294. $1.00.

English family life, showing the weakness of character resulting from self-indulgence, and the strength which comes from the conscientious doing of small duties.

Maggie Bradford's Club. The first of a set of sequels to the "Bessie Books." Joanna H. Mathews. New York: F. A. Stokes & Co. 1889. pp. 250. $1.25.

The home and school life of several girls of nine or ten years.

Maid of Ukraine, A. From the French of P. J. Stael, by Cornelia W. Cyr. New York: Dodd, Mead, & Co. pp. 268. $1.00.

A story based on the efforts of the Ukrainians to make themselves independent of Russia. Legendary and sad.

Maitland, Agnes C. Madge Hilton.

Malot, Hector. Roland Kalbris.

Manwell, M. B. Geordie Stuart.

Marshall, Emma. Dewdrops and diamonds.
Heather and harebell. Rex and Regina.

Marjorie's Canadian Winter. A story of the northern lights. Agnes Maule Machar. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1892. pp. 374. $1.50.

Martineau, Harriet. Feats on the fiord.

Mary. Mrs. Molesworth. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1893. pp. 204. $1.00.

A simple home story, with lessons of kindness and frankness.

Mass' George. A boy's adventures in the old savannahs. G. Manville Fenn. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 554. $2.00.

An account of English colonists in Georgia and their struggles with flood and fire, alligators, Indians, and Spaniards. No lives are taken except in self-defence, and dislike of slavery and kindness to the negroes are emphasized. The hero is manly, obedient, and not too brave or wise.

Master Bartlemy; or, the thankful heart. Frances E. Crompton. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1892. pp. 173. 75 cts.

A quaint story of a little girl of olden time.

Mathews, Joanna H. Maggie Bradford's club.

Matthews, Brander. Tom Paulding.

Max, Fritz, and Hob. A tale of adventure. C. R. Coleridge. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 238. $1.25.

A story of some German children, who have a peculiar love and sympathy for animals, and great pleasure in out-of-door life.

Mayhew, Henry. Boyhood of Martin Luther.

Meade, L. T. Four on an island.

McLeod, Grace D. Stories from the land of Evangeline. [Minority List.]

Melody. Laura E. Richards. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. 1893. pp. 90. 50 cts.

The story of a little blind girl adopted by two maiden sisters. Her wonderful gift for singing and her sympathetic disposition make her a joy to the village.

Merriam, Florence A. Birds through an opera-glass.

Men of Iron. Howard Pyle. New York: Harper & Bros. 1892. pp. 328. $2.00.

A story of much adventure, showing the training of a manly boy in arms and chivalry in the time of Henry IV. of England. Written for "Harper's Young People."

Michael and Theodora. A Russian story. Amelia E. Barr. Boston: A. I. Bradley & Co. pp. 168. 75 cts.

A story of the fortitude of two children during the exile of their parents, with vivid pictures of Russian life and customs.

Midshipman Paulding. Molly Elliot Seawell. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1891. pp. 133. $1.00.

A story introducing some incidents of the battle of Lake Champlain, in 1814.

Miller, Emily Huntington. The king's messenger.

Miller, Olive Thorne. Little brothers of the air.

Milman, Constance. Mum Fidgets and the two Richards.

†Minnie and her Pets. Mrs. Madeline Leslie. Ill. New York: Ward & Drummond. 1882. Six volumes in a box. $2.40.

Minnie's Pet Parrot.	Minnie's Pet Cat.
" " Dog.	" " Lamb.
" " Horse.	" " Monkey.

Reprint of books included in a former list.

Missionary Twig, A. Emma L. Burnett. New York: American Tract Society. pp. 199. 75 cts.

The story of some little girls who belonged to a Mission Band. Lessons of self-denial and systematic giving are well impressed, and the missionary interest brings out opportunities of helpfulness everywhere. Orthodox in tone, but not sectarian.

Miss Roberts's Lodgers. A little Welsh town. Annette L. Noble. New York; Nat. Temp. Soc. 1892. pp. 315. $1.25.

The story of the life of some American girls in Wales. A temperance story.

Mistress Beatrice Cope; or, passages in the life of a Jacobite's daughter. M. E. LeClerc. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1889. pp. 335. 75 cts.

English historical romance of the time of the last Jacobite rising, in the reign of William and Mary. Anglo-catholic doctrine, p. 83.

Mistress Phil. Mary H. Debenham. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 154. 90 cts.

A story of life in a small English town in the last century, with lessons of helpfulness and the force of example.

Molesworth, Mrs. The bewitched lamp.

An enchanted garden.	House to let.
Family troubles.	The lucky ducks.
The girls and I.	Mary.
Great-uncle Hoot-Toot.	The rectory children.
Green casket.	Twelve tiny tales.

Moor and Moss. Mary H. Debenham. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 200. $1.00.

A story of border warfare between England and Scotland; with lessons of faithfulness and courage.

Moral Teachings of Science. Arabella B. Buckley. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 118. 75 cts.

More Good Times at Hackmatack. Mary P. Wells Smith. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1892. pp. 277. $1.25.

A continuation of "Jolly Good Times at Hackmatack."

Morley, Charles. Teufel, the terrier.

Morrison, Sarah E. Chilhowee boys.

Morse, Lucy Gibbons. Rachel Stanwood.

Mother's Bedtime Tales. Minnie E. Kenney. Ill. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1893. pp. 158. 75 cts.

Mother Carey's Chicken: her voyage to the unknown isle. G. Manville Fenn. New York: Imported by Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 151. $1.00.

Adventures among Malay pirates and volcanic islands, with vivid descriptions and well-drawn characters, especially a natural, manly boy, who does what he is told as well as he can, even when he is afraid, and leaves the prodigies of wisdom and valor for his elders.

Moxom, Philip Stafford. The aim of life.

Mr. Orde's Grandchildren. Cecilia Selby Lowndes. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1890. pp. 341. $1.25.

An English story of family estrangement and reconciliation; self-government and respect for elders are well taught by the wise and loving mother.

Mulock, Miss. Little lame prince.

† Mum Fidgets and the Two Richards. Constance Milman. Ill. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1892. pp. 150. $1.00.

Two stories of little children.

Munroe, Kirk. Campmates.
Canoemates. The coral ship.

Musical Journey of Dorothy and Delia, The. Bradley Gilman. Ill. New York & Boston: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 79. $1.25.

A fanciful story of two little girls' journey to the land of music, where the notes and musical terms are personified.

My Goddaughter. Mary H. Debenham. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 154. 90 cts.

The story of some English children at the time of the Gordon riots. Non-Unitarian doctrine on page 51.

My Lady Legend, and other folk tales from the north. Translated from the Swedish of Albrekt Segerstedt, by Anna von Rydingsvärd. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 297. $1.25.

Simple fairy tales, many of them having a moral or spiritual significance.

My Year in a Log Cabin. W. D. Howells. New York: Harper & Bros. 1893. pp. 62. 50 cts.

A picture of the author's life as a boy.

Nat, the Naturalist; or, a boy's adventures in the eastern seas. George Manville Fenn. New York: Imported by Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 317. $1.50.

The story of an expedition to collect birds for scientific purposes, with enough adventure to make it interesting.

Newberry, Fannie E. Brian's home.
Comrades. Sara, a princess.

† Nellie's Red Book Series. Kate W. Hamilton. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. Six volumes, of about 80 pages each. $2.25.

Nellie's red book. Dick and his cousins.
Giving and keeping. Two and a half.
Tommy and Millie. What Dolly and Robbie did.

Simple stories with excellent moral lessons, not too obtrusive.

New England Girlhood, A, outlined from memory. Lucy Larcom. Riverside Library for Young People. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 274. 75 cts.

The simple narrative of a New England life, first in a sea-coast village, later in a Lowell factory.

New France, Stories of. Agnes M. Machar and T. G. Marquis. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 304. $1.50.

Historical sketches of the early settlers in Canada.

New Mexico David, A, and other stories and sketches of the southwest. Charles F. Lummis. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1891. pp. 217. $1.25.

Stories of life and adventure among the Spanish and Indian inhabitants of New Mexico, with some details of cruelty and bloodshed incident to the times of which they treat.

Nine Worlds, The. Stories from Norse mythology. Mary E. Litchfield. Boston & London: Ginn & Co. 1890. pp. 172. 50 cts. net.

Noble, Annette Lucile. Miss Roberts's lodgers.

No Heroes. Blanche Willis Howard. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1893. pp. 97. 75 cts.

The story of a boy of sixteen who voluntarily gives up a pleasure voyage and stays at home to help his father, the village doctor, during a small-pox epidemic.

Norway, G. The loss of John Humble.

* Ocean of Air, The : meteorology for beginners. Agnes Giberne. New York: Am. Tract Society. pp. 398. $1.25.

A clear, popular presentation of the latest scientific theories about our atmosphere, and about heat, light, and electricity in connection therewith, and their relations to life on our earth.

Odyssey, The Story of the. Rev. A. J. Church, M. A. Colored illustrations. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1891. pp. 306. $1.00. Macmillan's School Library. 50 cts.

A prose paraphrase of the Odyssey.

Ogden, Ruth. Courage. A loyal little red-coat.

O'Grady, Standish. Finn and his companions.

Only a Guardroom Dog. Edith E. Cuthell. New York: Cassell Pub. Co. pp. 223. $1.25.

The experiences of a Scotch terrier, with sketches of army life at various stations in England, Egypt, and India.

On the Hills. A series of geological talks. Prof. Frederick Starr, of Natural History Museum, New York. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 249. $1.25.

A sketch of modern views in geology with the story ot personal explorations in the United States.

On the old Frontier; or, the last raid of the Iroquois. W. O. Stoddard. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1893. pp. 340. $1.50.

Historical fiction.

O'Reilly, Mrs. Holiday tasks. Hurstleigh Dene.
Joan and Jerry. [Minority List.]
When we were young.

Otis, James. Jennie Wren's boarding-house.
Josiah in New York. [Minority List.]

* Our Asiatic Cousins. Mrs. A. H. Leonowens. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 367. $1.50.

Brief accounts of the origin, customs, and religions of Asiatic nations.

* Our Continent, The story of. A reader in the geography and geology of North America. N. S. Shaler. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1892. pp. 278. 75 cts. net.

Oxley, J. Macdonald. Archie of Athabasca.

Page, Thomas N. Among the camps.

Pair of Originals, A. E. Ward. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1891. pp. 349. $1.25.

The story of two precocious, affectionate, mischievous, and truthful little boys of five and seven years.

Parton, James. Captains of industry.

Paul Jones. Molly Elliot Seawell. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1893. pp. 166. $1.00.

A story of the life and exploits of Paul Jones, founded on fact.

Paull, Minnie E. Ruby and Ruthy.
Ruby's ups and downs.

Paull, Mrs. Geo. A. Prince Dimple.

Peard, Frances M. The abbot's bridge.
The blue dragon. Mademoiselle.

Peasblossom. Author of "Miss Toosey's Mission." Sequel to "Honor Bright." New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 259. $1.25.

Another story of the Bright family, especially of the two boys, Pat and Paddy, and their friends.

Penrose, Ethel. Fairy cobbler's gold.

Perry, Nora. Another flock of girls.
Rosebud garden of girls.

† Pixie's Adventures. The tale of a terrier. N. d'Anvers. New and revised edition. Ill. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. pp. 192. 75 cts.

Story of a Scotch terrier, told by himself.

Plympton, A. G. Robin's recruit.

Poems for Children. Celia Thaxter. Ill. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. pp. 153. $1.50.

Polly Oliver's Problem. A story for girls. Kate Douglas Wiggin. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1893. pp. 212. $1.00.

The story of an energetic young girl whose love for children leads her to find a career in telling stories to them.

Pot of Gold, The, and other Stories. Mary E. Wilkins. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. pp. 324. $1.50.

Several fairy stories; and also a part of the "Adventures of Ann," the story of a little bound girl, which was published separately in 1886.

† Prince Dimple and his every-day doings. Mrs. George A. Paull. New York: Anson Randolph & Co. pp. 129. $1.25.

A prettily illustrated account of a baby's experiences with men and things.

Puff: an autobiography. Edited by Mrs. Macquoid. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. 1889. pp. 94. $1.00.

The story of a little dog.

Pyle, Howard. Men of iron.

Queen Hildegarde. A story for girls. Laura E. Richards. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 292. $1.25.

A fastidious, thoughtless city girl learns helpfulness and a true estimate of herself and of other people during a summer on a farm, where many improbable things happen.

* Rachel Stanwood. A story of the middle of the 19th century. Lucy Gibbons Morse. Boston &

New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1893. pp. 441. $1.25.

A story of the early abolitionist in New York.

* Rambler's Lease, A. Bradford Torrey. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 222. $1.25.

Magazine papers about country life and its sights and sounds, with some moralizing and mild satire.

Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia. Samuel Johnson, LL.D. Classics for children. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1893. pp. 157. 30 cts. net.

Ray, Anna Chapin. The cadets of Fleming Hall.

Ray's Discovery. Cecilia Selby Lowndes. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 156. 60 cts.

A story of two curious and imaginative little girls, who listen to conversation which was not intended for them, and learn a lesson against curiosity.

Rectory Children, The. Mrs. Molesworth. London & New York: Macmillan & Co. 1889. pp. 212. $1.00.

An impetuous, thoughtless girl of eight and her well-trained friend. The book has the English sharp distinction of "classes."

Redeeming the Republic. The third period of the War of the Rebellion, in the year 1864. Ill. Charles Carleton Coffin. New York: Harper & Bros. 1890. pp. 478. $3.00.

Repplier, Agnes. A book of famous verse.

Rex and Regina; or, the song of the river. Emma Marshall. The Chines Series. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 344. $1.25.

A story of some English children in different walks of life, with lessons of truth and self-control. Somewhat non-Unitarian in tone.

Richards, Laura E.

Captain January. In my nursery. [Minority List.]
Hildegarde's holiday. Hildegarde's home.
Melody. Queen Hildegarde.

* Right Road, The. A handbook for parents and teachers. John W. Kramer. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1891. pp. 282. $1.25.

A book to be used with children, treating of Duty to Self, Duty to Others, Duty to God, all illustrated by many stories, old and new.

Robber Baron of Bedford Castle, The. A story of the 13th century. A. J. Foster and E. E. Cuthell. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1893. pp. 219. 80 cts.

A story of knights and maidens, with an account of the siege of Bedford Castle.

Robert of the Sunny Heart. Imogen Clark. New York. Geo. M. Allen Co. pp. 205. $1.50.

A pathetic story of a crippled, lonely child and his patience, loyalty, and pluck. The end is very sad.

Robin's Recruit. A. G. Plympton. Ill. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1893. pp. 179. $1.00.

A story of the effect produced on a rough man by a boy's confidence and love.

† Rock-a-By Series. Anna P. Burnham. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. Six volumes in a box. $1.50.

One-page stories for very little people, with excellent morals. Two allusions to Satan, in Pat-a-Cake and Peek-a-Boo.

Roland Kalbris. The adventures of a fisherman's son in his search for a ship. Hector Malot. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co. 1891. pp. 232. 75 cts.

On earlier lists as "Romain Kalbris," and "Sea and Shore."

Rome, Stories from the History of. Mrs. Beesley. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. pp. 189. 50 cts.

A republication of a book in a former list.

Room for One More. Mary Thacher Higginson. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1879. New edition. pp. 255. $1.00.

The "One More" is a motherless boy, welcomed into a New England family.

* Rose and Lavender. By the author of "Miss Toosey's Mission." Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 307. $1.00.

A story of English village life, in which unselfishness and integrity triumph over superficial prettiness and lack of principle, as illustrated by two young girls and their lover.

Rosebud Garden of Girls, A. Nora Perry. Boston: Little, Brown, & Co. 1892. pp. 287. $1.50.

Short stories, with good lessons for girls.

Roy's Opportunity, and how he improved it. Annie L. Hannah. New York: Am. Tract Society. pp. 381. $1.25.

A series of stories told on successive Sundays to a boy during an illness. Non-Unitarian doctrine on page 145.

Ruby and Ruthy. Minnie E. Paull. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 233. $1.00.

An old-fashioned story of every-day life in a New England village.

Ruby's Ups and Downs. A Sequel to "Ruby and Ruthy." Minnie E. Paull. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 244. $1.00.

†Runaway, and other stories. Jessie H. Brown. Cincinnati: Standard Pub. Co. 1890. pp. 140. $1.00 net.

The adventures of a very little girl, who becomes much ashamed of having been a "runaway."

Rydingsvärd, Anna von. My Lady Legend.

Saint Bartholomew's Eve. A tale of the Huguenot wars. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1893. pp. 384. $1.50.

Saint George for England. A tale of Cressy and Poitiers. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 352. $1.50.

Santa Claus on a Lark, and other Christmas stories. Washington Gladden. Ill. New York: Century Co. 1890. pp. 178. $1.25.

Six Christmas stories teaching thoughtfulness for others and that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Sara, a Princess. Fannie E. Newberry. Boston: A. I. Bradley Co. pp. 304. $1.25.

A "King's Daughter" of humble birth wins her way in the world by devotion to duty, and by the use of every opportunity for self-improvement.

Saxby, Jessie M. E. Viking boys.

Scannell, Edith and Florence. Jean Noël.
The little musician.

Scott, Mrs. O. W. Gilead Guards.

Scudder, Horace E. George Washington.

Seashore, Wood, and Moorland, By. Peeps at nature. Edward Step. New York: Thomas Whittaker. 1892. pp. 320. $1.25.

Bits of English natural history.

Sea-Side and Way-Side. Nature readers. Julia McNair Wright. Ill. Boston: D. C. Heath & Co. No. I. pp. 87. 25 cts. net. No. II. pp. 175. 35 cts. net. No. III. pp. 297. 50 cts. net. No. IV. pp. 361. 60 cts. net.

No. I. treats of crabs, wasps, spiders, bees, and some univalve mollusks. No. II. treats of ants, flies, earthworms, beetles, barnacles, star-fish, and dragon-flies. No. III. has lessons in plant life, grasshoppers, butterflies, and birds. No. IV. has an account of the making of the earth, and also of some curious species of animals.

Seawell, Molly Elliot. Little Jarvis.
Midshipman Paulding.
Paul Jones.

Seward, Olive R. Around the world stories.

Sewell, Anna. Black Beauty.

Shakespeare, Tales from. Charles and Mary Lamb. Classics for children. Boston: Ginn &

Co. 1892. pp. 309. 40 cts. net. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1893. pp. 368. 50 cts.

Shaler, N. S. The story of our continent.

Shipton, Helen. Duty's bondman.

Shoulder Arms; or, the boys of Wild Lake school. John Preston True. New York: Hunt & Eaton. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. 1889. pp. 328. $1.00.

Life in a school under military discipline and of high moral tone.

Sidney Grey. A tale of school life. Annie Keary. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 358. $1.00.

An English story of the influence of right principle among boys. Recommended on Catalogue of 1867, but long out of print.

Sidney, Margaret. The little red shop.

Silver Cross, The, and Miss Marigold's Tithes. Alice Eddy Curtis. Boston & Chicago: Cong. S. S. & Pub. Soc. pp. 328. $1.50.

The first story is of a lame girl, who tried to lend a hand in all kindly ways; the second, of an old maid, who passed on to others a tenth of all her pleasures and her means.

Smith, Mary P. Wells. Jolly good times at Hackmatack. More good times at Hackmatack.

Some Friends of Mine. Eleanor A. Hunter. Ill. New York: Hunt & Eaton. 1889. pp. 159. 50 cts.

Stories of pet animals.

Southern Cross Fairy Tale, A. Kate McCosh Clark. Ill. Boston: Estes & Lauriat. pp. 52. $1.25.

A Christmas fairy story, adapted to the latitude and longitude of New Zealand, introducing birds and beasts peculiar to that region.

Spenser, Tales from. Chosen from "The Faerie Queene." Sophia M. Macklehose. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1893. pp. 195. 50 cts.

Stables, Gordon. 'Twixt school and college.
Westward with Columbus.

Standish of Standish.* A story of the Pilgrims. Jane G. Austin. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1893. pp. 422. $1.25.

Starr, Professor Frederick. On the hills.

Step, Edward. By seashore, wood, and moorland.

Stephanie's Children. By the author of "The Atelier du Lys." New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 291. $1.50.

The story of a young French countess who takes devoted care of her two little step-daughters during the Revolution. After many hardships they escape to England, and the book ends happily.

Stirling, Amelia H. Torch-bearers of history.

Stockton, Frank R. What might have been expected.

Stoddard, William O. The battle of New York.
Chuck Purdy. Little Smoke.
The White Cave. [Minority List.]

†Stories for Young Children. E. A. Turner. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1891. pp. 88. 20 cts. net.

Simple, graded stories for children of six or seven to read.

Stories of the Sea. Narratives of adventure selected from the "Sea Tales." James Fenimore Cooper. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1886. pp. 360. $1.00.

Stories of the Woods. Adventures of "Leather Stocking." James Fenimore Cooper. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. pp. 339. $1.00.

Stories of the Civil War. Edited by Albert F. Blaisdell. Boston: Lee & Shepard. 1890. pp. 244. $1.00. School edition, 30 cts.

Short stories, from many sources, of incidents in our Civil War.

Storm's Gift, The. A Lancashire story. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1889. pp. 128. 50 cts.

A little boy is rescued from a shipwreck, and grows up loyal and grateful to his foster-parents.

†Story Hour, The. A book for the home and the kindergarten. Kate Douglas Wiggin and Nora A. Smith. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1890. pp. 185. $1.00.

Short stories, — fiction and history, — each with a moral, to be told to very young children.

Story of Juliette, The. A child's romance. Beatrice Washington. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1892. pp. 186. $1.00.

A story of country life in France.

Story of Patsy, The. Kate Douglas Wiggin. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 68. 60 cts.

A little deformed boy in a kindergarten for the poorest children.

Straight On. By the author of "Colette." New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1891. pp. 319. $1.50.

An orphan French boy is given a home with two disagreeable cousins, and suffers injustice at a large school, but makes friends by his unselfishness, honesty, and loyalty to his motto, "Straight on."

Stredder, Eleanor. Jack and his ostrich.
Lost in the wilds of Canada.

Stuart, Esmé. The vicar's trio.

Summer in a Cañon, A. A California story. Kate Douglas Wiggin. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1890. pp. 272. $1.25.

The experience of some young people camping out in Southern California.

Summerville Prize, The. A story for girls. Mrs. George Archibald. New York: Hunt & Eaton. 1890. pp. 206. 75 cts.

School-girl life in a country town; cheating by one girl, and disappointment well borne by the heroine.

Swett, Sophie. Flying Hill Farm.

Swift, Jonathan. Gulliver's travels. Edition for children.

Talks about a Fine Art. Elizabeth Glover. New York: T. Y. Crowell & Co. pp. 32. 35 cts.

The fine art is that of being charming and helpful in daily life and one's own family.

Talks to Boys. Eleanor A. Hunter. New York: Am. Tract Soc. pp. 112. 50 cts.

Short chapters of advice to boys on Self-Control, Spending and Saving, Awkward Boys, Shy Boys, etc. References to revivals and prayer-meetings, on pages 103 and following. Useful to teachers for reading aloud.

Talks to Girls. Eleanor A. Hunter. New York: Am. Tract Soc. pp. 132. 60 cts.

Short chapters, with anecdotes about the details and small temptations of girls' lives. Evangelical in tone, as pp. 26, 29.

Teufel, the Terrier; or, the life and adventures of an artist's dog. Charles Morley. Ill. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1892. pp. 90. 75 cts.

Thanet, Octave. We all. [Minority List.]

Thaxter, Celia. Poems for children.

Their Happiest Christmas. Edna Lyall. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1890. pp. 120. 50 cts.

How two little English children made Christmas happy for some inmates of a hospital, and forgot to tease each other.

Thornton-Wildes, M. L. Lonely Hill.

Through Magic Glasses, and other lectures. Arabella B. Buckley. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 1890. pp. 226. $1.50.

A sequel to the "Fairy Land of Science," telling what may be done and seen by the use of the telescope and microscope.

Through the Sikh War. A tale of the conquest of the Punjaub. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. 1893. pp. 386. $1.50.

Tiffany, Francis. Life of Dorothea Lynde Dix.

Tiffany, Nina Moore. From colony to commonwealth.

† Told by the Fireside. Stories by E. Nesbit and others. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co. pp. 88. $2.00.

Short stories and poems, "illustrated with sixteen colored and sixty black-and-white pictures."

Tom Paulding. The story of a search for buried treasure in the streets of New York. Brander Matthews. New York: The Century Co. 1892. pp. 254. $1.50.

A New York boy makes persevering efforts to recover money stolen from his grandfather during the Revolution.

Torch-Bearers of History. A connected series of historical sketches. Amelia Hutchison Stirling, M. A. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1893. pp. 159. 80 cts.

These sketches begin with Homer, and end with Luther.

Torrey, Bradford. A rambler's lease.

To the Lions. A tale of the early Christians. Rev. Alfred J. Church, M. A. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1889. pp. 258. $1.25.

A story of the persecutions in Nicæa in 112 A.D. Jesus is spoken of as God, p. 136.

Towle, George M. Heroes and Martyrs.

Town and Country Mice. J. M. Callwell. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1891. pp. 160. 60 cts.

Two country children, visiting in London, are lost in a fog, ill-treated by an old woman, and befriended by some poor children, whom they befriend in turn.

Trees, Stories of the. Mrs. W. H. Dyson. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1890. pp. 272. $1.25.

Chapters, with illustrations, about the structure and growth of common English trees, and their part in history and poetry.

Trowbridge, John. The electrical boy. [Minority List.]

Trowbridge, J. T. Fortunes of Toby Trafford.

True, John. Shoulder arms.

True Story Book, The. Edited by Andrew Lang. New York: Longmans, Green, & Co. 1893. pp. 337. $2.00.

A collection of historical romances and tales of adventure, mostly unfamiliar.

Turner, E. A. Stories for young children.

† Twelve Tiny Tales. Mrs. Molesworth. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 96. $1.00.

Short stories, some simply entertaining, some teaching good lessons of a very simple kind.

† Twenty Little Maidens. Amy E. Blanchard. Ill. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Co. 1893. pp. 160. $1.50.

A collection of short, simple stories about little girls.

Twenty Years at Sea. Leaves from my old log-books. Fred. Stanhope Hill. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1893. pp. 273. $1.00.

An account of actual experiences in the merchant service of fifty years ago, and in naval service during our Civil War.

'Twixt School and College. A tale of self-reliance. Gordon Stables, C.M., M.D., R.N. New York: Imported by Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 352. $1.50.

A Scotch story of a boy and his pets. The lessons are of thrift, industry, and systematic care of pets of all kinds.

Uncle Guy. A story for children. Lady Dunboyne. S. P. C. K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 159. 60 cts.

The story of a few weeks in the life of an English family. The children visit an uncle in the holidays, and learn obedience, diligence, and thoughtfulness.

Under the Water-Oaks. Marian Brewster. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1892. pp. 319. $1.25.

A story of family life in the South, with vivid pictures of the life of Southern children.

Vicar's Trio, The. Esmé Stuart. London: Nat. Soc.

Depository. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 274. $1.50.

The Trio are the motherless children of an English clergyman, and with some improbability of plot, the book tells of their unconscious influence for good on many people.

Viking-Boys. Jessie M. E. Saxby. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 240. $1.00.

An account of some boys on the Shetland Islands, and how an old feud between owners of neighboring islands was buried.

* Village Genius, A. A true story of Oberammergau. M. Bramston. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 158. 90 cts.

A story of which the hero is the composer of the music used in the Miracle Play.

Volkhovsky, Felix. A china cup.

Waiting and Serving; or, the major's little servant. Maude M. Butler. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1892. pp. 139. 60 cts.

An English story of the patience and courage of a crippled boy and the thoughtful kindness of his brothers and sisters.

Walford, L. B. For grown-up children.

Walks and Talks of Two School-boys. Rev. J. C. Atkinson. London & New York: Macmillan & Co. 1892. pp. 433. $1.25.

A reprint of an English book of thirty years ago, telling chiefly of the interest of two school-boys in birds, eggs, and nests.

Walton, Amy. Lilac White.

* Wanted, a Sphere. M. Bramston. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 160. 60 cts.

A continuation of "Snowball Society" and "Home and School." The restlessness and self-assertion of the modern well-educated and conscientious girl are clearly drawn, with a touch of humor; and the family relations have the wholesome charm of the earlier books.

Ward, A. E. A pair of originals.

Ward, Herbert D. The captain of the Kittiewink.

Warner, Anna. Blue flag and cloth of gold.

War of Independence, The. John Fiske. Riverside Library for Young People. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 200. 75 cts.

With a list of books for collateral reading.

Wars of the Roses, In the. A story for the young. Evelyn Everett-Greene. New York: T. Nelson & Sons. 1892. pp. 256. $1.00.

Historical fiction of the time of Henry VI.

Washington, Beatrice. The story of Juliette.

Washington, George. An historical biography. Horace E. Scudder. Riverside Library for Young People. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1889. pp. 248. 75 cts.

* Washington and his Country. Irving's life of Washington, abridged for the use of schools, by John Fiske. Classics for children. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1889. pp. 618. 75 cts. net.

Water Babies, The. A fairy tale for a land baby. Rev. Charles Kingsley. Edited by J. M. Stickney. Ill. Classics for children. Boston: Ginn & Co. 1892. pp. 192. 35 cts. net.

An abridgment for children.

Waverley, Stories from. For children. N. Gassiot. Macmillan's School Library. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1893. pp. 320. 50 cts.

Weber, Alice. An affair of honor.
Florence. When I'm a man.

Wells, Henry P. City boys in the woods.

Westward with Columbus. Gordon Stables, M. D. C. M. New York: C. Scribner's Sons. pp. 352. $1.50.

The story of the life of Columbus from his boyhood, the main facts historically correct.

What Might Have Been Expected. Frank R. Stockton. New edition (on Catalogue, 1878). New York: Dodd, Mead, & Co. pp. 292. $1.50.

The efforts and success of a Virginian girl and boy to keep an old negro woman from the poorhouse.

"When I'm a Man;" or, little Saint Christopher. Alice Weber. Ill. London: Griffith, Farran, Okeden, & Welsh. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 1888. pp. 189. $2.00.

The experience of a little English boy of eight years, who, through many adventures, learns what is the best strength and manliness.

† When We Were Little. Mabel S. Emery. Ill. Boston: Universalist Pub. House. 1894. pp. 96. $1.00.

A simple story of child-life.

When We Were Young. Mrs. O'Reilly. Ill. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 275. $1.00.

A story of English family life.

White, Lilac; or, the Queen of the May. Amy Walton. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 223. $1.00.

By faithfulness in small things, Lilac White wins her way to the respect and love of the relatives with whom she has to make her home on an English farm.

Wiggin, Kate Douglas.

Polly Oliver's problem. The story hour.
The story of Patsy. A summer in a cañon.

† Wild Pigs, The. A story for little people. Gerald Young. Ill. New York: Macmillan & Co. 1892. pp. 131. $1.25.

The adventures of some little pigs in the woods.

Wilkins, Mary E. The pot of gold.
Young Lucretia, and other stories.

Williams, Meta S. Tales from the Mabinogion.

Wiltse, Sarah E. Kindergarten stories and morning talks.

† Winter Frolic. Holiday fun for all. Ill. Boston: De Wolfe, Fiske, & Co. 60 cts.

Short stories from "Our Little Ones."

Wiscasset Stories. Eleanor A. Hunter. New York: Am. Tract Soc. pp. 256. $1.00.

Boys and girls in a country town who carry out various schemes for helping other people.

With Clive in India; or, the beginning of an empire. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 382. $1.50.

Much history and comparatively little fiction.

With Wolfe in Canada; or, the winning of a continent. G. A. Henty. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. pp. 384. $1.50.

Introducing story of Braddock's defeat and the attacks on Ticonderoga and Fort William Henry.

Wood, Rev. J. G. and Rev. Theodore. The Zoo.

Wright, Henrietta C. Children's stories from English literature.

Wright, Julia McNair. Fru Dagmar's Son.
Sea-side and Way-side.

Young Lucretia, and other stories. Mary E. Wilkins. Ill. New York: Harper & Brothers. 1892. pp. 258. $1.25.

Stories of old-fashioned country life of New England children.

Young, Gerald. The wild pigs.

Young Macedonian in the Army of Alexander the Great, A. Rev. Alfred J. Church, M.A. Ill. New York & London. G. P. Putnam's Sons. 1891. pp. 325. $1.25.

Young Squire, The. Lady Dunboyne. S.P.C.K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. pp. 157. 60 cts.

An English boy of twelve, brought up in the country, visits a family of cousins in London, and comes in contact with suffering and poverty. The story gives his difficulties in adjusting himself to life and its duties.

† Zoo, The. Rev. J. G. Wood and Rev. Theodore Wood. S.P.C.K. New York: E. & J. B. Young & Co. 1892. pp. 100. $1.00.

Illustrated sketches of animals.

MINORITY LIST.

The following books, having some cordial approvals, are considered worthy of mention, although they were rejected by the General Commission: —

Abandoned Claim, The. Flora Haines Loughead. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. 1892. pp. 330. $1.25.

A story of three children, who took up an abandoned claim in California, and made a successful venture of it. The lessons of industry and perseverance are good, in spite of some unpleasant and improbable incidents.

Christmas Every Day, and other stories. W. D. Howells. Ill. New York: Harper & Brothers. 1893. pp. 150. $1.25.

Nonsense stories for little children.

Electrical Boy, The; or, the career of Greatman and Greatthings. John Trowbridge. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1891. pp. 390. $1.50.

A story of a street boy's many adventures, in which the latest electrical inventions play an important part. He grows to be an honest, manly fellow; but the story is sensational, and has some disagreeable scenes.

† In My Nursery. Rhymes, chimes, and jingles for children. Laura E. Richards. Ill. Boston: Roberts Bros. 1890. pp. 238. $1.25.

A collection for young children, most of which appeared in "St. Nicholas" and "Wide Awake." Its character makes it suitable for use at home rather than in libraries.

Joan and Jerry. Mrs. O'Reilly. New York: Thomas Whittaker. pp. 264. $1.00.

A story of the good influence exercised by a mother and daughter living in humble lodgings in London.

Josiah in New York; or, a coupon from the Fresh-Air Fund. James Otis. Boston: A. I. Bradley & Co. 1893. pp. 259. $1.00.

A country boy pays a visit to two newsboys who were sent to his father's farm by the Fresh-Air Fund the previous summer. The story tells of the life and amusements of street boys and their generosity to each other.

* Stories of the Land of Evangeline. Grace Dean McLeod. Boston: D. Lothrop Co. 1891. pp. 336. $1.25.

Historical narratives of Arcadia, of unequal value. Some of the details seem harsh, but may be needed for the accuracy of the picture.

We All. Octave Thanet. New York: D. Appleton & Co. pp. 280. $1.50.

A story of the visit of a boy from a Northern city to his Arkansas cousins. Sensational, but with examples of true courage and the folly of social conceit.

White Cave, The. William O. Stoddard. New York: The Century Co. 1893. pp. 254. $1.50.

The scene is laid in Australia, and the hero is an Englishman who has taken refuge in a cave and has many adventures with the natives. In spite of confused style and improbable incidents, the book is interesting and its tone wholesome.

GTU Library
2400 Ridge Road
Berkeley, CA 94709
For renewals call (510) 649-250

All items are subject to recall.